

Terms and Conditions

1. Scope of License.

Institutional Purchaser/Subscriber Use Restrictions: The license includes authorization of access by means of the Institution's IP addresses to allow site-wide online access by authorized users via multiple connections. If a proxy server is being registered for access, the Institution agrees to maintain the security of the access by authenticating authorized users before allowing use of the proxy to any remote or on-site user. "Authorized users" are employees, faculty, staff, or students officially affiliated with the Institution, and on-site patrons of the Institution's library facilities. (Sites may be academic or nonacademic. For academic institutions, different campuses are considered different sites even if they are within the same city. Departments or libraries of the same campus are considered part of the same site. For nonacademic institutions, sites are defined as geographically separate units, even if they are within the same city. Each branch, office, or laboratory is a different site.)

Authorized Uses:

Institution and Authorized Users may make all use of the Licensed Materials as is consistent with the Fair Use Provisions of United States and international copyright laws. In addition, the Licensed Materials may be used for purposes of research, education or other non-commercial use as follows:

Display. Institution and Authorized Users shall have the right to electronically display the Licensed Materials.

Digitally Copy. Institution and Authorized Users may download and digitally copy a reasonable portion of the Licensed Materials.

Print Copy. Institution and Authorized Users may print a reasonable portion of the Licensed Materials.

Recover Copying Costs. Institution may charge a reasonable fee to cover costs of copying or printing portions of Licensed Materials for Authorized Users.

Archival/Backup Copy. AMS agrees to engage the services of third-party trusted archives and/or participate in collaborative archiving endeavors to allow Institution to exercise rights under section 2, 'Access', of this Agreement. AMS agrees to cooperate with such archiving entities and/or initiatives as reasonably necessary to make the Licensed Materials available for archiving purposes. Institution may perpetually use the third-party trusted system to access the Licensed Materials, so long as Institution's use is otherwise consistent with this Agreement.

Caching. Institution and Authorized Users may make local digital copies of a reasonable portion of the Licensed materials in order to ensure efficient use by Authorized Users by appropriate browser or other software.

Collections of Information. Institution and Authorized Users shall be permitted to extract or use information contained in the Licensed Materials for educational, scientific, or research purposes, including extraction and manipulation of information for the purpose of illustration, explanation, example, comment, criticism, teaching, research, or analysis.

Text Mining. Authorized Users may use the licensed material to perform and engage in text mining /data mining activities for legitimate academic research and other educational purposes.

Course Packs. Institution and Authorized Users may use a reasonable portion of the Licensed Materials in the preparation of Course Packs or other educational materials.

Course Reserves (Print and Electronic). Institution and Authorized Users may use a reasonable portion of the Licensed Materials for use in connection with specific courses of instruction offered by the University of California, Irvine.

Scholarly Sharing. Authorized Users may transmit to a third party in hard copy or electronically, minimal, insubstantial amounts of the Licensed Materials for personal use or scholarly, educational, or scientific research or professional use but in no case for resale or commercial purposes.

Interlibrary Loan:

Institutions may use copies of chapters or articles derived from the electronic edition of the publications for the purpose of interlibrary loan with the same limitations that apply to copies for that purpose made from the print edition of the books. Specifically, copies must be made in compliance with Section 108 of the Copyright Act of the U.S. and be within the CONTU Guidelines. Authorized users must maintain all copyright and other notices on the copied material.

Electronic transmission of content is allowed unless, as a purpose or effect of such, the library receiving such copies does so in such quantities as to substitute for a subscription or purchase.

Automated searching or downloading by use of scripted searches, robots, spiders, crawlers, or otherwise, is prohibited except as indicated above in section 1: Text Mining.

Except as allowed above, an authorized user may not make the electronic version of the book(s) available to anyone other than another authorized user, whether by telephone link or by permitting access through his or her terminal or computer, or by other similar or dissimilar means or arrangements.

The Institution will make reasonable efforts to maintain security and monitor all use (including unauthorized use) from its respective site and to communicate the terms of the license to their users.

Authorized users will be bound by the limitations stated in any copyright statement or terms of use posted from time to time on the publisher's website, except to the extent (if any) that such provisions may be inconsistent with the express terms of this license.

In the event that Licensor requires Authorized Users to agree to terms relating to the use of the Licensed Materials before permitting Authorized Users to gain access to the Licensed Materials (commonly referred to as "click-through" licenses), Licensor shall provide Licensee with notice of and an opportunity to comment on such terms prior to their implementation. In no event shall the terms of such "click-through" licenses materially differ from the provisions of this Agreement. In the event of any conflict between the terms of such "click-through" licenses and this Agreement, the terms of this Agreement shall prevail.

2. Access. The license includes perpetual access on the AMS server for the year(s) subscribed to and backfile(s) purchased.

Notwithstanding anything else in this Agreement, AMS hereby grants to Institution a nonexclusive, royalty-free, perpetual license to use any Licensed Materials that were accessible during the term of this Agreement. Such use shall be in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement, which provisions shall survive any termination of this Agreement. The means by which Institution shall have access to such Licensed Materials shall be in a manner and form substantially equivalent to the means by which access is provided under this Agreement.

3. Term and Fees.

Annual Subscription: This Agreement will last through the end of the calendar year in which the subscription first becomes effective. This Agreement is signed and will remain in effect thereafter for successive calendar years so long as annual subscription fees are paid. Either party may terminate this Agreement, effective on the next renewal date, by at least 30 days' written notice to the other party. The annual fee for this subscription may be raised by written notice to the subscriber, given at least three months prior to the next succeeding renewal date. The fee for each year this Agreement is renewed must be paid on or before the renewal date or the renewal will be invalid. The subscriber will maintain perpetual access to the years subscribed to on the AMS website in perpetuity at no additional cost.

Backfile Purchase: This Agreement will remain in effect in perpetuity, i.e., perpetual access to back titles purchased on the AMS web site. There will be no additional fees once purchase is made.

4. Support. AMS eBooks include online documentation. In addition, the AMS will provide the Institution with email and/or telephone support service during the AMS's normal business hours (Monday-Friday, 9:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m., ET). The email address for technical support is ; the telephone number for support is
5. Copyright. AMS eBooks and their contents are subject to copyright, database protection, and other rights of the publisher (AMS) under the laws of the United States and the country of use. The Institution acknowledges that it has no claim to ownership by reason of its use of or access to AMS eBooks. Downloading of data is permitted solely for the Institution's internal or Authorized Users' personal use to the same extent as the printed version of the publication. Recompiling, publication, or republication of the data, or any portion thereof, in any form or medium whatsoever, may be done only with specific written permission from the AMS (reprint-permission@ams.org).
6. Suspension or termination of access. "If the AMS becomes aware of a material breach of the rights granted to the Subscriber under the Agreement that the AMS reasonably believes will cause immediate and severe economic injury, the AMS will notify the Subscriber immediately and shall have the right to temporarily suspend the access of the Internet Protocol ("IP") address(es) from where the breach occurred. Once the breach has been remedied or the breaching activity halted, the Publisher will immediately reinstate access to the Licensed Materials. If the Subscriber does not satisfactorily remedy the breaching activity within sixty (60) days, the Publisher may terminate this Agreement upon written notice to the Subscriber.
7. Warranties

Subject to the Limitations set forth elsewhere in this Agreement:

AMS warrants that it has the right to license the rights granted under this Agreement to use Licensed Materials, that it has obtained any and all necessary permissions from third parties to license the Licensed Materials, and that use of the Licensed Materials by Authorized Users in accordance with the terms of this Agreement shall not infringe the copyright of any third party.

8. Disclaimer of Warranties.
 - a. The AMS has made and will make good faith efforts to ensure that AMS eBooks are complete and accurate. However, the AMS does not warrant completeness or accuracy, and does not warrant that the Institution's use of the Licensed Materials will be uninterrupted or error-free, or that the results obtained will be useful or will satisfy the Institution's requirements.
 - b. The AMS makes no other warranties or representations of any kind, expressed or implied, including but not limited to warranties of merchantability or fitness for a particular purpose.
 - c. The Institution will be permitted to access the Licensed Materials at any time. The AMS will not be liable for any delay, down time, or other failure of performance, but will use reasonable efforts to correct any performance problem brought to its attention.
 - d. The AMS will not be responsible for incidental, consequential, or any other damages arising out of or in connection with the service or materials provided hereunder.

9. Indemnities

The AMS shall indemnify and hold Institution and Authorized Users harmless for any losses, claims, damages, awards, penalties, or injuries incurred, including reasonable attorney's fees, which arise from any claim by any third party of an alleged infringement of copyright or any other property right arising out of the use of the Licensed Materials by the Institution or any Authorized User. NO LIMITATION OF LIABILITY SET FORTH ELSEWHERE IN THIS AGREEMENT IS APPLICABLE TO THIS INDEMNIFICATION.

Each party shall indemnify and hold the other harmless for any losses, claims, damages, awards, penalties, or injuries incurred, including reasonable attorney's fees, which arise from any alleged breach of such indemnifying party's representations and warranties made under this Agreement, provided that the indemnifying party is promptly notified of any such claims.

The indemnifying party shall have the right to defend such claims at its own expense. The other party shall provide assistance in investigating and defending such claims as the indemnifying party may reasonably request and have the right to participate in the defense at its own expense.

10. General.

- a. This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement of the parties and supersedes any prior communication between the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof. Only a written instrument signed by both parties may amend it.
- b. The Institution may not assign or transfer its rights under this Agreement.
- c. This Agreement shall be interpreted and construed according to, and governed by, the laws of California, excluding any such laws that might direct the application of the laws of another jurisdiction. The federal or state courts located in California shall have jurisdiction to hear any dispute under this Agreement.
- d. Usage Statistics. As of September 2012, AMS must provide use data on a monthly basis or upon request. Use data should be at the level of detail required for objective evaluation of both product performance and satisfaction of user needs, including title-by-title use of journals. Providers should follow the International Coalition of Library Consortia (ICOLC) "Guidelines for Statistical Measures of Usage of Web-Based Information Resources " or provide information in compliance with COUNTER or other recognized international standard.
- e. Confidentiality of User Data. AMS and Institution agree to maintain the confidentiality of any data relating to the usage of the Licensed Materials by Institution and its Authorized Users. Such data may be used solely for purposes directly related to the Licensed Materials and may only be provided to third parties in aggregate form. Raw usage data, including but not limited to information relating to the identity of specific users and/or uses, shall not be provided to any third party).
- f. In the event that AMS utilizes any type of digital rights management technology to control the access or the usage of Licensed Product, AMS agrees to notify Institution of the name, contact information and any technical specifications for the digital rights management technology utilized.
- g. If AMS utilizes any type of digital watermarking technology for any element of the Licensed Product, AMS agrees that watermarks will not degrade image quality. These watermarks shall not contain user-related information such as account number or IP address. If digital watermarking technology is used, AMS agrees to notify Institution, in advance, of the name, contact information, and any technical specifications for the technology used.
